Padre's Portion: Where do I begin this weekend. How about TOILET PAPER!!! This Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and we have built a tradition here at Sacred Heart of building a "wall" of toilet paper in our sanctuary area. This gift is a reminder to us of our blessedness and a very, very practical gift for our St. Vincent DePaul who will distribute it to those in need. This is an item that can't be purchased with food stamps yet is so necessary. Please, bring your toilet paper anytime this week to Church. A great start to our "Giving Season."

Also one of our longest serving members, Bill Kelner, is going to step down after 25 years serving at the treasurer of St. Vincent DePaul plus many more years of being a part of this wonderful outreach in other parishes.. We will recognize him on Thanksgiving Day. And the collection on Thanksgiving Day will go completely to honor Bill and to be used to support SVDP. Thank you, Bill.

Also thanks to our Religious Education children (and Priscilla Holman who does incredible work with them) for their beautiful hymn before 10:00 Mass last Sunday on Veteran's Day weekend. Children touch us, return us to our innocence for a moment or two, and help us touch heaven. Thank you. And did you know we have 3 men currently serving in our Armed Forces: Riley Costello (Marines), Casey Graff (US Air Force) and Nick Pavlakovich (US Air Force). Remember them in your prayers, please.

Thank you to Diane Lanctot and Janet Alley who have completed their three year commitment to serve on our Pastoral Council. They were wonderful in guiding me on how to "pastor" our Parish. And welcome to Mark Sawtelle and Barb McLaughlin who were chosen by the Holy Spirit to serve to assist me in guiding our Parish. God bless all 4 of them bountifully

The readings for this final weekend of Ordinary Time are what are called apocalyptic. They force us to think of our own end times -- our departure from earth-- and the end of the world whenever that may come. Fr. Pat from St. Anthony's had a great quote in his bulletin from the theologian Karl Rahner, SJ on the way we as Catholics look at death. Since it's November, our month of saints and sinners, I wish to share: "The great and sad mistake of many people -- even among pious persons -- is to image that those whom death has taken, leave us. They don't leave us. They remain! Where are they? In darkness? Oh, no! It is we who are in darkness. We do not see them, but they see us. Their eyes, radiant with glory are fixed on our eyes full of tears. Oh, infinite consolation! Those invisible to us, our dead are not absent. . . It is a firm faith in the real and continual presence of our loved ones; it is the clear and penetrating conviction that death has not destroyed them, not carried them away. They are not even absent, but living near to us, transfigured . . . Death is,, for the good, a translation into light, into power, into love." God is good. . .All the time! God Bless.
