Padre's Portion... Our Gospel this weekend makes the very serious statements that each of us needs to take to heart and ponder: ". . . the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong? Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." Jesus never sugar coats His message, and this weekend is no different. Jesus talks about being prepared for the Kingdom that is to come and yet is already here. Not to be surprised. This is a timely Gospel, in light of national and world events where calamities happen that are totally unexpected. How about making a list this week of your 5 top treasures here in God's kingdom and the 5 top treasures that you are storing up for heaven? This is a challenging exercise.

In light of the Gospel of Martha and Mary a couple of weeks ago, I've been thinking about all the wonderful Martha's we have here at Sacred Heart. I know we have plenty of Mary's because we have such great crowds at Mass on the weekend. All of you come to pray and give thanks and carry the Good News forth. But I realized in my reflection how our Martha's are so essential to our work here. When you come through the doors you are welcomed by our GREETERS -- at each door. They shake the hands, even hug those known well and offer a smile and sunshine. Then we have all of those involved in serving at the Altar. Let's start with our ALTAR SERVERS -- men and women, boys and girls. I'd love to see some more men and women volunteer. How about a Mom or Dad and child team? It's an honor for me to serve with these Martha's. Then our LECTORS who bring the Word alive for us; our EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS who serve you Jesus' Body and Blood. Wow! What a humbling honor. However how do all the vessels and the materials used for the Mass magically appear at the right time? It's our SACRISTANS -- men and women who arrive about a 1/2 hour early to open the doors (and lock up) and set everything up. They are so good. Then, of course, our USHERS are there at the door during the Mass to help anyone who needs it, show where to sit if someone is late, to guide us to the Table at Communion and to take up the collection. All ages here can help! Now do you like to sing or adept at the piano or guitar? Maybe you could join our CANTORS or even the CHOIR. Marie is always ready to audition someone who would like to sing. We've all enjoyed the beautiful flowers that also magically show up on the weekends. Maybe you'd like to be part of the FLOWER POWER.

Yes, this is a plea for you to consider volunteering -- being a Martha in one of these ministries. We can use more in all areas. You would be trained by one of our veterans. Please consider. We're growing and we need more to serve at the feet of Jesus. Pray about it, think about it, and let me know or one of the ladies in the office know.

God Bless You for all you do for me and Sacred Heart. You're all top treasures for me that help get me to heaven.

Below is the prayer that Father shared at Mass a few weekends ago written by Fr. Patrick Conroy, S.J. Chaplain to the U.S. House of Representatives.

"In your most holy name, I now cast out all spirits of darkness from this chamber, spirits not from you."

"Cast out the spirit of discouragement which deadens the hope of those who are of good will. I cast out the spirit of petty divisiveness which clouds the senses and the desire to be of fruitful productivity in addressing the issues more appropriately before this House, I cast out any sadness brought on by the frustration of dealing with matters detrimental to the honorable work each member has been called to engage in."

"Anoint your servants here in the House with a healing balm to comfort and renew the souls of all in this assembly."

"May your spirit of wisdom and patience descend upon all so that any spirit of darkness might have no place in our midst. Rather, let your spirit of comity, of brother – and sisterhood, and love of our nation and of all colleagues in this chamber, empower our better angels to be at play in our common work to be done for the benefit of all your people."

Our Sacred Heart website has a new added feature. You can now view the ministry assignments for the following weekend on the home page and it is "mobile" view friendly, so now if you did not get a bulletin or misplaced your ministry schedule you have another option. You can as well access bulletins and the most current full ministry schedule on the website or at: <http://www.sacredheartportland.org>
