Padre's Portion.... My most sincere and humble thanks to all our wonderful Sacred Heart people who helped plan, organize and make our Wine and Cheese Saturday celebration and then on Sunday our first ever Super Bowl parties smash successes. Praise God. We are blessed! And it is so wonderful to have the Fellowship Hall. We named it well. Both events had almost every table being used and sharing laughs, stories and love. Not to mention the incredible food! It was so heartwarming to walk into the Fellowship Hall and see so many people enjoying these moments of life together.

This weekend's readings remind us that we are to be salt, light, a city built on a mountain. What does this mean? We are reminded that as baptized Catholics, we can't hide God. We have a God of justice and mercy who has expectations of us as God had expectations of Israel. We aren't off the hook regarding how we are to act. "You are the salt of the earth." Jesus says, "You are the light of the world." Jesus here describes our identity and mission. What does our mission involve? Jesus is calling us to a different way to forgiveness, holiness, generosity, and the God-given courage and strength it takes to do it. To live totally in the Gospel's influence over any other kind of worldly power and give ourselves away to others. To give ourselves away to love. It's not easy; but we're not alone, and we have Jesus leading the way.

I want to share a little bit about my health. Many of you ask if I'm going to retire knowing I'm the young age of 72 (Archdiocesan retirement age is 70). My plan is to retire when my health takes me out of being able to serve you. So far, so good. I'm working hard on my health. Blood Pressure is under control, blood sugar I monitor daily and it is maintaining, still working on strength for my one good leg with a trainer and a physical therapist, however, I ran into a huge snag this week as I am probably facing open heart surgery. I'm just beginning to meet with doctors/surgeons to see what the plan is and what the time line would be. I will keep you in the loop. All I ask is send an occasional prayer heavenward for wisdom for me to choose the best course of action, and the least disrupting to my work with you.

God Bless.

Greetings! I just want to let you know that the Annual Harrington Lecture in Honor of Rev. Harrington will be at All Saints on Wednesday, March 4, 2020 at 7:00 pm in the Church. Rev. Raymond Carey will share his reflections on "Embracing the Joyful Message of St. Luke's Acts of the Apostles". This Lecture by Father Carey will be an opportunity for all of us and our parishioners to begin a good Lenten Journey towards the Joy of Easter. We will soon be sending you a flyer for this event and also to your parish offices. Please spread the word with your parishioners and friends. Thanks and have a good day! Fr. Paul.
