Padre's Portion.... This weekend's Gospel once again, is a mine field of possible explosions for us. The words challenge us, but please, do not walk away. We're on our way to heaven, and this Gospel pushes us up the pathway to heaven. This young man in the Gospel is an entrepreneur. He is enthusiastic about his accomplishments. And Jesus tells him he has to do one more thing. "Go and sell what you have and give to the poor; you will then have treasure in heaven. After that, come and follow me." I believe Jesus is reminding the young man -- and us -- that entry into the Kingdom of God can never be a human achievement of resources and effort. The one who has the most toys does not win! Here is my challenge and I invite you to reflect on mine or create your own. How attached am I to the things of the world. With the holidays on the horizon, the barrage of advertisements reminds me of what I want and not need. Am I willing to let go of my world attachments especially those that stop me from loving another? It is a good time to do an inventory. Give thanks for all the blessings, sort out my "Hoarder" instincts and do a readjustment of my attitude. Join me?

Thank you to all those who helped with last Saturday evening's "Wine and Cheese." It's becoming a very popular social event for us on the 1st Saturday of the month. Come join us at the next one! It is November 2nd. Good food, good company, and great conversation.

World Mission Sunday takes place this year on October 20, 2024. Parishes of the Archdiocese have always been very generous in their response to the mission needs of the world. Today is the one-year anniversary of the beginning of the war in the Middle East and as we pray and fast for peace, we have a real opportunity to support the evangelization that is the antidote to the darkness we see facing us. Please be as generous as you can. You can find envelopes in the back of church. Thank you for your generosity to this collection.

The Pastoral Council on Sunday, October 27th will be making 150 sack lunches for the houseless after the 10am Mass. They are looking for eager volunteers to help out with the task of making lunches and or making a donation to help fund this event. This is an event that they will be doing four times this upcoming year. Please consider helping the less fortunate and share some time with fellow parishioners making sack lunches.

Children's Religious Education Activities - Parents and Families: Drop your children off in the Rectory basement for snacks, crafts, and activities, while you go socialize at Coffee and Donuts!

Beginning this fall, we will hold children's religious education activities a couple of times a month, after the Sunday 10am Mass in the Rectory basement. Together, through Scripture, crafts, and other activities, we will learn about God's Love, the saints, feast days and the liturgical calendar, expand on the day's Gospel, and explore how we are called to share God's Love with others. Activities will run about 45 minutes long after Mass. Our first two classes will be Sunday October 20th and 27th. Look for the rest of the fall and winter schedule to be out soon! Interested? Questions? Please email Jennifer Anderson, RE teacher, at j.anderson@sacredheartportland.org.
