Padre's Portion..... A gentleman who happened to attend both Saturday evening's Confirmation celebration and returned on Sunday to First Communion said to me on Sunday that even though it was pouring rain, the sun was shining inside the Church. What a compliment. How true. I felt so strongly the Holy Spirit on Saturday night. The Holy Spirit "fell down upon us" as the 1st Reading reminded us how the Spirit works. Truly the warmth of the Spirit carried on over to Sunday morning. Both groups have been so fun to work with this past year. And a huge thanks to Jennifer Anderson who led the First Eucharist class. She's not only knowledgeable about the Eucharist and deeply committed to her faith, but she is so creative. Please give her a shout out if you see her.

Now this weekend is Mother's Day, a bittersweet day for me. It brings my own Mom back to the surface of my thoughts and heart, but I also have many memorable memories of this day with her. Modeled by Dad who always made sure Mom was honored well on this day, I kept the Tradition going each year. I miss her especially on this day. And it's also the Feast of the Ascension, which rounds out the promise Jesus made to us that He would suffer, die, rise and ascend. And that's where we're headed.

Now next weekend, we don't slow down. Wear RED, it's the Feast of Pentecost. And this is really our feast. For the Holy Spirit is the shaker and mover who keeps us going, who lifts us up, who guides us. We need to pray constantly to the Spirit. The Father continues to create, the Son gave His life for us and now the Spirit is here among us to bring us into heaven. The Spirit is power!!!!

The Celebrations continue.

God Bless

1 Corinthians 12:3b -7,12-13
John 20:19 - 23

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you give life and care for your Church. Bless these women, as we celebrate this day in their honor. May they be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them with a spirit of profound respect.

May the example of Mary, mother of Jesus, inspire them to live their vocation as Christian mothers and call their children to faith. Guide and protect them in challenging times and help them to continue to trust in you all the days of their life.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
