A MESSAGE FROM FR. BOB

On Friday, February 20, John and Kim Limb visited with Fr. Bob. He dictated this message to parishioners (and insisted that Kim be in the photo).

I am thankful for Fr. Mike's approval to send you a short update of how I am doing. I'm not doing much better, but I am improving. First, I cannot walk. I cannot get up on my own without assistance. So with the help of therapists I am working hard to be able to do that one day in the near and distant future. I am closer to you because I am at Maryville, which is part of the Sisters of St. Mary of Oregon. I feel wonderful care. I have no idea how long I will be here, but I am so thankful that I am under the care of the holy sisters. So my daily routine, pretty much, is medical check-ins, physical therapy, and dreaming about the delicious meals I used to have with you. You need to know that your prayers lift me up every day and are a pillar to my spiritual life. Thank you. Please keep them up. No prayer goes unheard. God bless you. You are loved. Love wins. — Fr. Bob
